THE LORD

JANUARY TO JUNE 2012

This calendar has been compiled for the Diocesan Spirituality Group.

The information contained in this booklet is to the best of the compilers' knowledge correct as at the 1st December 2011.

Prayers for inclusion in future editions of this booklet would be welcomed and should be sent to:

Rev'd. Peter Leonard, The Rectory, Llandow, Cowbridge. CF71 7NT or by email to peter@theleonards.org.uk (Until 5th May 2012) or Roy Saunders at Windways, 15, Trafalgar Terrace, Ystrad, Rhondda.
CF41 7RG or to royint1@aol.com

The work and witness of the Church in the diocese, in vale and valley, in city and suburb, in town and village, is part of the unceasing worship offered by the wider Church of Almighty God.

In our diocese, the mother church, Llandaff Cathedral remembers the parishes, clergy, committees, specialist ministries and the people each day at the Eucharist. The diocese is asked to pray for the work of the Cathedral in its servant role and especially on those days in which your parish is remembered at the Cathedral.

The titles of the Sundays and other days are from the Church in Wales Lectionary for 2011 / 2012

The daily intentions of the Anglican Cycle of Prayer are included.

Updates may be accessed at:

A PRAYER FOR THE DIOCESE

Father, you gave us Jesus Christ your Son to be both Lord and Saviour. By the power of your Spirit, renew your Church in this Diocese of Llandaff, and help us to bring the good news of Salvation to all your people.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

I am the Water of life,

the living fountain
that will refresh and renew you.

I am the Light of the World,

that will give you the courage
to enter the darkness of the world,
and to keep the faith in a changing church.

I am the Bread of Life

The ground grain that rises as life-giving bread,
that will sustain you
and help you to grow in faith,
and deepen your communion
with the saints, living and departed.

I am the True Vine,

that can unite you
and nurture your desire
to be poured out in joyful service,
like the crush fruit poured into the chalice of my love.

I am the Way the Truth and the Life:
The path, the means and the end of all journeys.

I am the resurrection and the life
that will bring you to your final destination,
to the one God and Father of us all.
To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen

Healing Forgiveness

Lord save us
from erecting or hiding behind the obstacles
of lingering guilt, harbouring grudges, or nursing resentments.
Open our eyes to the healing forgiveness
for ever flowing from the cross.

When we doubt the power of your forgiving love,
when we turn in on our unforgiving side;
may we hear those timeless words:
Father forgive them, for they know not what they do.

May your forgiving Spirit live in us
and bring us the joy that is in heaven
over each act of healing forgiveness.

Growing in trust Lord Jesus,
your goodness is greater than all our sinfulness,
your truth is deeper than all our denials,
your love is stronger than all our betrayals;
help to live trusting in your word:

*Do not let your hearts be troubled,
trust in God still, and trust in me.*

(based on a reflection by Fr Gerard Hughes

in God of Compassion)

Fr. Colin Sutton

LIVING OUT OUR BAPTISMAL PROMISES

Compassionate God
open our hearts
that we may feel the breath
and play of your Spirit,
unclench our hands
that we may reach out to one another
in openness and generosity,
free our lips
that we may speak
for those whose voices are not heard,
unblock our ears
to hear the cries of the broken hearted,
and open our eyes
to see Christ in friend and stranger,
so that in sharing our love and pain,
our poverty and prosperity,
we may move towards that peace and justice
which comes from you
and so be bearers of divine reconciliation.

Fr. Colin Sutton

Heavenly Father,
we thank you for speaking to us
through the Holy Scriptures;
help us both to listen with our minds,

that we may understand its message;
and to listen with our hearts,
that we may respond in faith.
May your word to change
and shape our lives.

Fr. Colin Sutton

A Night Prayer

Redeemer of time,
in the silence of the night
we welcome your presence with us,
to still our bodies and our minds.

In the darkness of the night
we let go of our fears and anxieties.
and all that lurks in the dark corners of our lives.
We welcome your healing
on all that has been difficult for us,
your blessing on all that has been good.

We look towards a new day:
all that will challenge us
all that will renew us.
May your gift of peace dwell within us,
your enfolding love give us the rest we need.
May we rise in the light of a new day
to sing your praise
and give you glory through our lives.

Fr. Colin Sutton

	THE TRANSFIGURATION OF CHRIST This is the Mountain of the Lord.

This is the mountain where Moses encountered the living God.
This is Elijah's mountain-the place where God
revealed Himself within a small still voice.
Jesus seek to be near to God
and he is surrounded by the towering friends of God.
Conflict and opposition, pain and Passion
may await him down the mountain;
but here Heaven and earth meet-and as a sign
the garments that will be drenched in blood-
are dazzling white.
Here on the mountain the crowds crying out,
the constant needs of the twelve are silenced.
Time stands still-for this is eternity breaking through.
Even this sacred moment cannot be tamed - contained.
They must go down the mountain-his work must continue - and Christ as ever, will lead the way.
Within the Eucharist we ascend the mountain as the host is lifted up – as Christ comes in hidden splendour to the eye of faith.
Faith our outward sense befriending
makes the inner vision clear.
We ascend to the altar to receive the fullness of God's grace.
We also are sent back down the mountain;
to face both the joy and pain within our uncertain
lives.

Christ always leads our way.
Lord give us grace to hear your beloved voice,

	give us courage to go with you so that we might stand at the foot of the cross - so that we might live in the power of your risen life; so that we may reflect a little of the light of love that dazzles us. Moses continue to guide us. Elijah speak the truth clearly to us. Peter, James and John, surround us with your prayers Christ our Saviour bring us to our final end to the glory of your presence. Fr. Colin Sutton

Diocesan Spirituality Group

The Spirituality Group meets bi-monthly at Tŷ Teilo and produces the Diocesan Daily Prayer Intentions. It is part of the Provincial Spiritual Life Network.

Members of the Group have worked in a parish to help create a model for engagement with the spiritual needs of the parish and have worked with parishes and deaneries to explore their spiritual needs.

The Group has provided events at Tŷ Teilo including a day with the Archbishop on R.S. Thomas.

We intend to offer spirituality 'taster' days at Tŷ Teilo arising from work with parishes promoting the idea of 'going on retreat'.

Forthcoming events will be advertised in 'Croeso', on posters and on the Diocesan Website: www.llandaff.org.uk

Events are usually held at Tŷ Teilo retreat house unless otherwise indicated and are advertised in the Diocesan Mailing which is sent to every parish. Members of the Group are willing to visit deaneries and parishes; for more details contact Rev'd. Peter Leonard, on 01656 890205. peter@theleonards.org.uk (Until 5th May 2012)

Tŷ Teilo is available for parish/group activities such as quiet days/evenings. Planning meetings etc. and again details from the Warden of Tŷ Teilo, Rev'd. Peter Leonard, on 01656 890205 peter@theleonards.org.uk (Until 5th May 2012)
